

Obituary

Margaret Angela Saner Larson, daughter of Joseph and Margaret Laughlin Saner, was born on October 13, 1917, on the family farm in Imogene, Iowa, and passed away on June 27, 2002, in Shenandoah, Iowa. She attended St. Patrick's Catholic School graduating with the Class of 1934. She then attended Boyle's Business College in Omaha, Nebraska, and graduated in 1936. On September 4, 1948, she was united in marriage with Carroll Larson and they made their home in Shenandoah. Angela worked for Mount Arbor Nurseries in Shenandoah, full-time and part-time from 1936 through 1975. She was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church and the Regina Guild. She loved her seven grandchildren and attending their activities. She also enjoyed golf, line dancing, cards, playing the piano, singing and crossword puzzles.

She was preceded in death by her father, Joe Saner; mother Margaret Saner; three brothers Ambrose, Lou, John and her husband Carroll. Angela is survived by her three children, Bob Larson and his wife Nancy of Shenandoah, Susan Etscheidt and husband Randy of Cedar Falls, Jim Larson and his wife Carol of Garner, Iowa, seven grandchildren, Jamie Larson, Kristy Jackson, Julie Larson, Brian Larson, Courtney Etscheidt, Kelley Larson, and Ryan Larson; great-grandchild Jessica Jackson, two sisters, Evalyn Saner and Esther Butler, two sister-in-laws LaVonne VanBuskirk and Bernice Saner, all of Shenandoah, other relatives and many friends.