The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Lyle B. Latimer

Lyle Barrett Latimer, age 89, the son of Hugh and Irene (McAllister) Latimer was born June 15, 1917, near Northboro, Iowa, and passed away December 2, 2006, in Clarinda, Iowa.

Growing up near Northboro, Lyle graduated from the Northboro High School and earned an B.A. degree from Tarkio College in 1939, a Master's of Science degree from Drake University in 1946 and a Doctor of Education degree from the University of Nebraska in 1964.

From 1942 to 1945 Lyle served his country during World War II. He served as a tail gunner on a B-24 with the 44th Bombardment Group of the Army Air Corps, taking part in thirty-one combat missions, including the D-Day attacks, earning the Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal with four clusters.

On June 2, 1946, Lyle was united in marriage to Harriette Elaine Roscoe, his bride of sixty years. To this union four children, Gary, Mary, Sherry and Larry were born.

From 1939 to 1966 Mr. Latimer was employed as a teacher and principal at Farragut Community Schools in Farragut, Iowa. He was an education field supervisor for Western Illinois University from 1966 to 1968; coordinator of special services for the Council Bluffs Community Schools in Council Bluffs, Iowa from 1968 to 1973; director of special education, Area 15, Ottumwa, Iowa office from 1973 to 1978; staff psychologist at Iowa Braille and Sight Saving School, Vinton, Iowa from 1978 to 1979; and an education administrator at the Glenwood State Hospital School in Glenwood, Iowa from 1979 until his retirement in 1982.

While active in the Iowa State Education Association, Mr. Latimer served on the State Board of Directors, as well as at the county, district and national levels. He was a life member of the Education Association. His most prized achievement was being named to the Honor Roll of Iowa Educators by the members of the Farragut school staff, thus having his name listed at the Iowa State Education Association's Salisbury House, State Headquarters Building in Des Moines, Iowa. Mr. Latimer was also a member of the Congregational Church in Farragut.

Survivors include his wife, Harriette of Shenandoah; son and daughter-in-law, Gary and Janet Latimer of Lincoln, Nebraska; daughter and son-in-law, Mary and Jerry Holbrook of Tucson, Arizona; daughter and son-in-law, Sherry and Paul Honnold of Clarinda, Iowa; and son and daughter-in-law Larry and Deborah Latimer of Topeka, Kansas. Also surviving are grandsons, Douglas Latimer of Minneapolis Minnesota, Jason Latimer of Lincoln, Brad Honnold of Clarinda, Iowa, Brian Honnold of New Orleans, Louisiana, and B.J. Honnold of Ames, Iowa; and a great granddaughter, Ali Honnold of Malvern, Iowa. Others include a brother, Eugene Latimer of Indianola, Iowa; sisters-in-law and brother-in-law, Helen Laughlin of Lincoln and Mildred and Richard Greedy of Wenatchee, Washington; plus several nieces, nephews other relatives and many friends.
