The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Wilma L. Bishop

Wilma Lydia Bishop, the daughter of Glenn and Ada (Hunt) Hand, was born December 19, 1907 in Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away November 4, 2003, in Peoria, Arizona, at the age of 95.

Wilma lived her life in Shenandoah, where she received her education and worked. She was married to Lawrence F. Bishop, and to this union, Sandra and Marcia were born. For many years, Wilma worked at Henry Field's Seed and Nursery Company before becoming the Page County Welfare Director, a position she held for 36 years. After her retirement, she moved to Sun City, Arizona, to be with her daughter, Marcia, where she lived for the past 10 years. She was a member of Altrusa, Eastern Star, American Legion Auxiliary, and Lady Eagles. Wilma was a long time member of the United Methodist Church in Shenandoah, and after her move to Arizona, she joined the Unity Church in Surprise, Arizona.

Preceding Wilma in death were her parents; daughter, Sandra Berland; brothers, Ross and Clarence Hand; sister, Lois Radden; and a niece, Jean Lundgren.

Survivors include her daughter, Marcia Gonyea of Sun City, Arizona; three grandchildren, Gregory Gonyea, Terri Maus and Traci Barse; six great grandchildren, Cody, Brady, and Tanner Maus, Elisa, Samantha and Joseph Barse; three nieces, Rosaland and Kathy Hand and Carol Lee Radden plus other relatives and friends.
