The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.*

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.*

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Kimber A. Gilbert

Kimber Alephious Gilbert, the son of Levi and Vena (Conkin) Gilbert, was born December 15, 1911, in Riverton, IA, and passed away June 17, 2000, in Shenandoah, IA, at the age of 88 years.

Kimber attended school in Riverton through the 4th grade and then attended rural Fareview country school, which was located just south of Shenandoah. He graduated from Shenandoah High School in 1932. He was united in marriage to Aletha M. Plautz on May 19, 1938, in Fremont, NE, and to this union, Lavonne and Larry were born. At the early part of his working career, Kimber hauled equipment from Omaha to Shenandoah for the Sondag Implement Company; worked for the Iowa State Highway Department, mowing roadsides; and worked for Earl May and Henry Field before starting his own trucking business in 1936. Kimber was in the trucking business for 56 years. After retiring from his own business he then worked for the Koch Ag Service in Shenandoah for two years until 1993. The Omaha Stockyard Company honored him for his 50 years of service.

Preceding Kimber in death were his parents; four brothers Ellis, Orlin, John and Ozzie Gilbert; and one sister, Evelyn McConkey.

Survivors include his wife, Aletha Plautz Gilbert, of Shenandoah; daughter, Lavonne Tripp and husband, Bill, of Omaha, NE; son, Larry Gilbert and wife, Corinne, of Shenandoah; granddaughter, Kimberly Rausch and husband Michael of Phoenix, AZ; great granddaughter, Haylie Rausch of Phoenix, AZ; five sisters, Blanch Staker of Garwin, IA, Eula Clark of Lincoln, NE, Myrtle Richardson of Gretna, NE, Lena Hewitt of Palm Bay, FL, and Ella Mae Crawford of Shenandoah; two brothers, Oscar Gilbert and his wife Norma and Elmer Gilbert all of Shenandoah; plus other relatives and friends.
