The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Rick L. Richardson

Ricky "Rick" L. Richardson, age 50, the son of Ivan and Wava L. (Wright) Richardson, was born February 15, 1954, in Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away March 23, 2004, at his home in rural Shenandoah.

Growing up in Shenandoah, Rick received his education in the Shenandoah school system graduating from high school in 1972. From 1986 to 1997, Rick operated the Richardson Construction Company specializing in ag related construction, building grain bins and steel buildings, tiling fields, operating a bull dozer, and selling and installing roofing materials. Rick's work experience led him to selling cars and trucks for Hawkeye Ford, installing grain bins and overhead doors for McNeilly Steel Buildings, operating tractor trailers for Frank Hammons Trucking and presently was a truck driver and farm hand for Mark Simmons Farms and Tiemeyer Trucking.

Rick enjoyed the outdoors, raising hunting dogs, fishing and hunting and was a member of the Swamp Hunting Lodge. He was a man who appeared gruff on the outside but who was soft hearted. He loved his family and friends.

Preceding Rick in death was his father, Ivan, in 1987.

Survivors include his mother, Wava Richardson of Shenandoah; brothers and sisters-in-law, Gene and Rose Richardson of Adel, Iowa and Charlie and Connie Richardson of Clarinda, Iowa; and several nieces and nephews, Michelle Richardson, Molly, Nick and Macy Benson, Matt and Emilee Richardson plus other relatives and many friends.
