Willa D. Boatwright

Willa Dean Boatwright, the daughter of Wilbur and Doris (Pulsifer) Davis, was born July 24, 1931, in Blanchard, Iowa, and passed away August 18, 2001, at the Shenandoah Memorial Hospital in Shenandoah, Iowa.

Willa grew up in the Blanchard area and received her education in the Blanchard School System, graduating from high school in 1949. On June 12, 1948, at Maryville, Missouri, she married Samuel Boatwright, and to this union Patti, Diane and Dennis were born. She was employed at Union Carbide in Red Oak, Iowa for several years and also assisted her husband Sam in their farming operation. Willa enjoyed family picnics, reading novels, cooking and being with her family.

Preceding Willa in death were her parents; husband, Sam on July 3, 2000, sisters, Louise Houser, Bette Maley, Shirley Gleason; and granddaughter, Laura Jo Schafer.

Survivors include her daughters, Patti Schafer and husband, Ron, of Massena, Iowa, Diane Maeder and husband, Paul of Corning, Iowa, a son, Dennis Boatwright of Shenandoah, Iowa, sister-in-laws, Lela Hoy of Shenandoah, Emma Phillips of Kansas City, Kansas, Edith Tysor of Council Bluffs, Iowa; eleven grandchildren; three great-grandchildren and other relatives and friends.
