~~~~~
"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stand another day
To laugh, to love, to work and play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with the times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friend, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts, and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.

Neoma L. Glasgo

Neoma Lucille Glasgo, age 83, was born March 11, 1922, in Worthington, Missouri, to James and Ida (Kirkpatrick) Bland and passed away October 22, 2005, in Shenandoah, Iowa.

Growing up in rural Essex, Iowa, Neoma graduated from Essex High School in 1939. On March 15, 1946, she was united in marriage to Merle Glasgo at Hiawatha, Kansas, and to this union, Jerrellynn and Carol were born.

Through the years Neoma worked for Henry Field Seed and Nursery Company as a typist, Red Oak Eveready Battery Company. And owned and operated with Merle, the Driftmier Mill and Seed Cleaning Company in Shenandoah.

Neoma was a member of the First Christian Church and the Shenandoah VFW Club. She often volunteered at Gardenview Care Center helping the residents with their various activities.

She enjoyed traveling with Merle often taking back roads to see the countryside. Neoma was adventurous and enjoyed camping and traveling with the Niharts on their tours and being with her friends celebrating each others birthdays. She loved her animals always having a pet dog. She looked forward to spending time on the farm and recently gave it serious thought to ride in the combine. Neoma loved her grandchildren and was known as a very kind person always first to give to others.

Preceding Neoma in death were her parents; husband Merle in 1976; granddaughter, Lori Mount; and brothers, Earl, Eugene and Ted Bland.

Survivors include her daughters and sons-in-law, Jerrellynn and Doug Bloom of Villisca, Iowa, and Carol and Larry Mount of Shenandoah, Iowa; and a sister, Marjory Gosney of Kansas City, Missouri. Also surviving are eight grandchildren, Debra Goodwin, Steven Miers, Melissa White, Richard Miers, Kari Bloom, Kati Hansen, Brenda MacDonald, and Michelle Ayres; eleven great grandchildren; plus other relatives and friends.
