Florence Tritsch Williams, daughter of Phillip Henry and Katherine Keil Tritsch, was born January 28, 1919, near Thurman, Iowa and passed away December 23, 1999, at Jennie Edmundson Hospital in Council Bluffs, Iowa. She was 82 years of age. Florence was one of a family of eleven children, Maude, Earnest, Lizzie, Carl, John, Edward, Bill, Mildred, and Louis, who along with her parents preceded her in death. Florence was united in marriage to Nelson Williams on March 20, 1936, by the Rev. James Pearson, KFNF minister in Shenandoah, Iowa. Florence and Nelson lived in Shenandoah for a few years and then moved to Glenwood for several years. They moved to Sidney and lived for a short time, also in Hamburg, finally moving back to Glenwood where they lived at the time of her death.

Florence is survived by her husband, Nelson Williams of the Tabor Manor Care Center, one sister, Mrs. Homer (Olga) Lawless of Sidney, Iowa, one sister-in-law, Ruby Tritsch of Syracuse, Nebraska, and many nephews and nieces and friends.

Following the service at the cemetery you are cordially invited to the Alice Williams home at 115 South Ave.
