

Sheila Ann Akers, the daughter of Charles Grover and Juanita (Baucom) Manrose was born on December 9, 1949 in Shenandoah, Iowa. She passed away suddenly on Sunday evening, December 24, 2006 at the Shenandoah Medical Center.

After graduating from Shenandoah High School, Sheila married Richard Akers on May 31, 1968 in Shenandoah. Sheila worked for Eaton Corporation for 26 years and was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Shenandoah. She enjoyed antiques, but most of all she loved her five dogs, two cats and all of her birds.

Preceding Sheila in death was her father, Charles Manrose in 1999. Survivors include her husband, Richard Akers of Shenandoah, Iowa; two sons, Michael Todd Akers and his wife Angie of Shenandoah, Iowa, Timothy Patrick Akers and his wife Kelly of Shenandoah, Iowa; five grandchildren, Ashley, Niki, Kali and Triston Akers and Ashley Smith; great grandchildren, Emma and A.J.; her mother, Juanita Manrose of Shenandoah, Iowa; two brothers, Ron Manrose and his wife Cindy of Shenandoah, Iowa, John Manrose and his wife Peggy of Schoolcraft, Michigan; two aunts, Thelma Clausen and Anne Baucom; along with other relatives and friends.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
