

Obituary

Donald Eugene Dailey, son of Bertie Glen and Gladys Blanche (Thrapp) Dailey, was born in Council Bluffs, Iowa on October 23, 1930. He graduated from Silver City High School in 1948.

Following graduation he worked for Burlington Northern Railroad until he joined the Marine Corps in 1951 and served with a tank unit (3rd Marine Tank Division) in Korea. After he was honorably discharged he worked in Illinois before coming to Shenandoah.

Don was a truck driver for many years including eleven years at Morton House Kitchens in Nebraska City, NE. In 1968, he purchased Don's Truck Stop and operated it until 1973 at which time he joined the Shenandoah Police Force. He served as an officer until his retirement in 1993.

Don was preceded in death by his parents, brothers Eldon Dean Dailey and Melvin Thrapp Dailey and nephew Glen Dean Dailey.

He is survived by his brother Raymond and wife Dixie Dailey; nieces, Deanna Lambertsen, Donna Robison and husband Ed, Julie McCalla and husband Charles, and Carla Androy and husband Todd; nephews, Russell Dailey and wife Carole, Randal Dailey, Roger Dailey and wife Rose, and Rick Dailey and wife Janine; cousins, Kay Sorsabel and husband Don, and Sharon Rothchild and husband Jack.

Services entrusted to:
Hackett-Livingston Funeral Home
Shenandoah, Iowa
712-246-2912