The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Lorraine C. Adams

Lorraine Catherine Adams, the daughter of Hans and Grace (Oviatt) Nelson, was born September 17, 1919, in Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away May 1, 2002, at Gardenview Care Center in Shenandoah.

Being raised in Shenandoah, Lorraine received her education in the Shenandoah school system. On July 12, 1949, in Jackson, Minnesota, Lorraine was united in marriage to Ted Adams. To this union, one son, Doug, was born. Lorraine was employed at Mount Arbor Nursery for 53 years and also over the years, part time at F. W. Woolworth and Brannen Super Value. She enjoyed her working years and her home, and was often seen working in her yard. She was proud of the fact that the Adams family was the only family that has ever lived in their home at the end of Sycamore Street. Most of all, Lorraine loved and enjoyed her family and often mentioned how important her granddaughters were to her.

Preceding Lorraine in death were her parents; husband, Ted, in 1975; two sisters; and four brothers.

Survivors include her son, Doug Adams of Shenandoah; two granddaughters, Holly Ann and Alyssa Ann Adams of Lincoln, Nebraska; plus several nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
