

Obituary

Margaret Jeanne Haldeman, daughter of William D. and Eva Gwynn Goodner, was born in Shenandoah, Iowa, on February 2, 1929. She grew up east of Shenandoah and attended Grant Country School and graduated from Shenandoah High School. Following high school Margaret attended the University of Iowa and graduated with a degree in elementary education. She taught second grade from 1950 through 1953 in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. In 1953 she married John C. Haldeman and they lived in Shenandoah until 1957 when she and the family returned to Cedar Rapids. She taught seven more years in Cedar Rapids before the family moved to Iowa City in 1970 where Margaret taught for 20 years until her retirement in 1990. Following her retirement Margaret and John returned to Shenandoah to live and they joined the Congregational Church.

Margaret was preceded in death by her parents, William and Eva Goodner, a brother Thomas Goodner, sister Helen Hawk and brother-in-law Kenneth Hawk and her father and mother-in-law John and Olivia Haldeman. She is survived by her husband John, two daughters, Jane Haldeman and Anne Barcus, two sons-in-laws, Doug Price and Mike Barcus, five grandchildren, Cameron Price, Mallory Price, Elizabeth Barcus, Jennifer Barcus and Bradley Barcus, sister-in-law, Phyllis Goldberg, other relatives and many friends.

Following the services at the cemetery, everyone is cordially invited to the church basement for a time of fellowship and refreshments with the family.
